

FCC should study this matter very careffuly before giving the OK to this BPL. The preliminary study performed by the ARRL clearly shows what kind of problems (severe RF interference for the Radio Amateur community and any other services between 2mHz and 80mHz)will result if the FCC approves BPL. I strongly oppose the BPL and request the FCC to deny the use of such system.